Lunch 'n Lead Webinars

The new fast, efficient and energetic way to develop leadership and management skills

Lunch 'n Lead Webinars

Bitesize learning to lead over lunch hosted by Richard Carr and guests. A quick way of cutting through the jargon and the longwinded bits. We will help you to get your head round the key bits you need on core leadership and management topics.

Webinars are fun learning sessions conducted over the internet. They are interactive; allowing people able to ask questions (via a chat function or through a microphone). At Q. Learning we have found webinars to be a great way to deliver small chunks of teaching and you don't even have to leave your desk! They are accessed remotely, through a computer connected to the internet, allowing people in different locations to participate.

Lunch 'n Lead ingredients

- An introductory session to introduce the programme, followed by six webinars on key leadership and management topics. Each webinar stands on its own... and listeners will get even more by working through the entire programme.
- 30 minutes of 'content' followed by up to 30 minutes of Q&As.
- Webinar 'support' through Cheat Sheets (1 side of A4 with crib notes) and Geek Packs (longer documents with more detail and application).

However, lunch and laptop not provided!

Who can come on the course?

Anybody who is in a hurry, gets bored easily and wants to get ahead with a 'just enough is good enough' mindset. The course also appeals to someone who never has enough time for their own personal development.

Programme

WEBINAR 1: HOW TO LUNCH 'N LEAD

Life, the universe and leadership in 30 minutes, plus a sandwich. If leadership is an exam, then this is the revision guide – just the bits you really need!

WEBINAR 2: JUST GET ON AND DO IT

Can you get things done when all around you are talking their heads off? This webinar shows you how to go long on action and short on meeting blight or conversations without end. Deliverer? It will be your middle name!

WEBINAR 3: BEING STRAIGHT WITH YOUR TEAM

Being a 'people-person' is lovely... and not at the expense of telling your team what they need to hear – about performance, expectations and direction.

WEBINAR 4: GETTING PEOPLE TO DO WHAT YOU WANT

This webinar will give you the inside track on how to get what you want. And you may never have to buy a drink again.

WEBINAR 5: APPLIED COMMON SENSE

Before you swallow the lean manual, tune into this webinar. Using your nous will get you fantastic results; engaging your brain will stop you slipping up. Better still, get others to engage their brains and deliver!

WEBINAR 6: IS THIS GOING ANYWHERE?

Task, projects and programmes bogged down; staff wading through treacle. Troubleshoot those problems and get things moving on track and at speed. Feel the whoosh as you speed down the slope to the finish line.

WEBINAR 7: PROVE IT!

Naked ambition or altruistic toil for the greater good. Either way, can you prove you and your team were the magic ingredient? Success? People can spot it a mile off.
